WE SYMPATHISE

We remember grieving families: Mr Kati and Ms Wessels (brothers-in-law); Ms Zenani (father).

WHERE IS MY CHILD?

Do you know what your child is doing and where she/he is? Is your child posting horrible pictures and messages on social media? Is your child drinking alcohol after school on a Friday or smoking, and embarrassing the school and the neighbours? Well, this is happening at LBHS. But it is not what you as parent NOR the school teaches them. These are a minority of learners, but they unfortunately blemish the 98% GOOD CHILDREN that we have.

PARENT MEETINGS

These COMPULSORY meetings were poorly attended. Because of the unrest that we are experiencing, the scheduled meetings for Grades 8 & 9 have been postponed to next week. See the dates on the left.

PARENTING WORKSHOPS

GRADE 9: the few parents who attended, enjoyed an informative workshop where the essence of schooling was addressed. Our FINAL session:

Saturday 01 AUGUST
9.00am - 12noon.

COMPULSORY for ALL
GRADE 9 PARENTS.

CONGRATS

Our children are CONFIDENT, ELOQUENT and SMART as they presented their speeches at the Public Speaking Function on Friday night. They are well-groomed by Mrs Y. Swartz and proudly supported by their parents. Our adjudicators, Mrs Snayer and Mrs Cooper, had a difficult time selecting our winners. Congratulations to the Top 3: KEESHA ADAMS, SINOVUYO MPOLA and UNATHI MADIKIZELA. But ALL the participants were winners!

Well done, NANDE MZAIDUME and LINEZE HEYDENRICHT for being selected for the EC Children's Choir. Our Music Department certainly takes credit for this inclusion.

FAMILY FUN DAY

On 15 AUGUST 2015 we celebrate LBHS FAMILY DAY after the Founders' Day celebrations on the preceding Friday. This includes a FUN RUN with entry fee of R20 per person, with stalls, games, music, dance competitions, a dog show and many, many more. Learners have to pay the R20 by WEDNESDAY 29 JULY. More information later, but inform friends and family to diarise this date.

INSIDE STORY HEADLINE

This story can fit 150-200 words.

One benefit of using your newsletter as a promotional tool is that you can reuse content from other marketing materials, such as press releases, market studies, and reports.

While your main goal of distributing a newsletter might be to sell your product or service, the key to a successful newsletter is making it useful to your readers.

A great way to add useful content to your newsletter is to develop and write your own articles, or include a calendar of upcoming events or a special offer that promotes a new product.

You can also research articles or find “filler” articles by accessing the World Wide Web. You can write about a variety of topics but try to keep your articles short.

Much of the content you put in your newsletter can also be used for your Web site. Microsoft Publisher offers a simple way to convert your newsletter to a Web publication. So, when you're finished writing your newsletter, convert it to a Web site and post it.

INSIDE STORY HEADLINE

This story can fit 100-150 words.

The subject matter that appears in newsletters is virtually endless. You can include stories that focus on current technologies or innovations in your field.

You may also want to note business or economic trends, or make predictions for your customers or clients.

If the newsletter is distributed internally, you might comment upon new procedures or improvements to the business. Sales figures or earnings will show how your business is growing.

Some newsletters include a column that is updated every issue, for instance, an advice column, a book review, a letter from the president, or an editorial.

You can also profile new employees or top customers or vendors.

INSIDE STORY HEADLINE

This story can fit 75-125 words.

Selecting pictures or graphics is an important part of adding content to your newsletter.

Think about your article and ask yourself if the picture supports or enhances the message you're trying to convey. Avoid selecting images that appear to be out of context.

Microsoft Publisher includes thousands of clip art images from which you can choose and import into your newsletter. There are also several tools you can use to draw shapes and symbols.

Once you have chosen an image, place it close to the article. Be sure to place the caption of the image near the image.

This would be a good place to insert a short paragraph about your organization. It might include the purpose of the organization, its mission, founding date, and a brief history. You could also include a brief list of the types of products, services, or programs your organization offers, the geographic area covered (for example, western U.S. or European markets), and a profile of the types of customers or members served.

It would also be useful to include a contact name for readers who want more information about the organization.

If your newsletter is folded and mailed, this story will appear on the back. So, it's a good idea to make it easy to read at a glance.

A question and answer session is a good way to quickly capture the attention of readers. You can either compile questions that you've received since the last edition or you can summarize some generic questions that are frequently asked about your organization.

A listing of names and titles of managers in your organization is a good way to give your newsletter a personal touch. If your organization is small, you may want to list the names of all employees.

If you have any prices of standard products or services, you can include a listing of those here. You may want to refer your readers to any other forms of communication that you've created for your organization.

You can also use this space to remind readers to mark their calendars for a regular event, such as a breakfast meeting for vendors every third Tuesday of the month, or a biannual charity auction.

If space is available, this is a good place to insert a clip art image or some other graphic.
