FAMILY DAY

My gratitude goes to all those who supported this day. As a first on this scale, we have done well. The parents who have not supported, how disappointing! To the learners who did not participate, your LO mark will be INCOMPLETE. But I am sad as well. The learners who stayed all the time, the parents who supported and the staff (Admin, Cleaning & Educators), I am grateful for your hard work.

I apologise for the runners whose names were not called as winners, but this will be rectified immediately and your prizes will be forwarded to you.

Thank you parents: Mrs Sibham, Mr Mabie, Mr Cupido and others.

JCC EXCELLS!

The following are elected into their portfolios: THATO SENTI as Senior Rep; LAKEESHA ADAMS as Junior Rep. THATO has also been elected to the Board of Councillors as MADAME SPEAKER! What an achievement! Thank you, KELLY KOOPMAN for the sterling work you have done during your term of office.

GENERAL

YOLANDA HESHU was invited to a prestigious function with Business Women's Association to participate in a talk entitled, "Business women of Tomorrow!" JASON JACOBS, SINOVUYO MPOLA and UNATHI MADIKIZELA delivered their speeches at an assembly at Parsons Hill Primary School. We see you as good ambassadors for Lawson.

WELL DONE, CHOIR

Our CHOIR excelled in the Choir of

Choirs Competition held at Walmer West Primary School on Thursday. Out of the 3 categories in which they participated, the Choir created 2: Best TRADITIONAL SONG and BEST ENTERTAINING High School Choir. I am proud of your accomplishments. Gr10&11 Music Learners attended a lecture demonstration on the Indian Tabla Drums and a Practical Choir Demonstration presented by overseas experts at NMMU.

Thanks to Ms Berrington, Mr Santi and Mr Blaauw for their hard work at refining our music learners and angelic voices for these honours.

SPORT SHORTS

CROSS COUNTRY: Congrats to u/15 Boys for finishing 2nd in the league for this season. Well done to you and your coaches, Ms Vosloo and Mr Joubert!

AFRIKAANSOLIMPIADE

Ons bedank al die deelnemers van die Olimpiade vir hulle toegewiedheid gedurende hierdie kompetisie. Geluk op die goeie punte wat julle behaal het.

INSIDE STORY HEADLINE

This story can fit 150-200 words.

One benefit of using your newsletter as a promotional tool is that you can reuse content from other marketing materials, such as press releases, market studies, and reports.

While your main goal of distributing a newsletter might be to sell your product or service, the key to a successful newsletter is making it useful to your readers.

A great way to add useful content to your newsletter is to develop and write your own articles, or include a calendar of upcoming events or a special offer that promotes a new product.

You can also research articles or find “filler” articles by accessing the World Wide Web. You can write about a variety of topics but try to keep your articles short.

Much of the content you put in your newsletter can also be used for your Web site. Microsoft Publisher offers a simple way to convert your newsletter to a Web publication. So, when you're finished writing your newsletter, convert it to a Web site and post it.

INSIDE STORY HEADLINE

This story can fit 100-150 words.

The subject matter that appears in newsletters is virtually endless. You can include stories that focus on current technologies or innovations in your field.

You may also want to note business or economic trends, or make predictions for your customers or clients.

If the newsletter is distributed internally, you might comment upon new procedures or improvements to the business. Sales figures or earnings will show how your business is growing.

Some newsletters include a column that is updated every issue, for instance, an advice column, a book review, a letter from the president, or an editorial.

You can also profile new employees or top customers or vendors.

INSIDE STORY HEADLINE

This story can fit 75-125 words.

Selecting pictures or graphics is an important part of adding content to your newsletter.

Think about your article and ask yourself if the picture supports or enhances the message you're trying to convey. Avoid selecting images that appear to be out of context.

Microsoft Publisher includes thousands of clip art images from which you can choose and import into your newsletter. There are also several tools you can use to draw shapes and symbols.

Once you have chosen an image, place it close to the article. Be sure to place the caption of the image near the image.

This would be a good place to insert a short paragraph about your organization. It might include the purpose of the organization, its mission, founding date, and a brief history. You could also include a brief list of the types of products, services, or programs your organization offers, the geographic area covered (for example, western U.S. or European markets), and a profile of the types of customers or members served.

It would also be useful to include a contact name for readers who want more information about the organization.

This story can fit 175-225 words.

If your newsletter is folded and mailed, this story will appear on the back. So, it's a good idea to make it easy to read at a glance.

A question and answer session is a good way to quickly capture the attention of readers. You can either compile questions that you've received since the last edition or you can summarize some generic questions that are frequently asked about your organization.

A listing of names and titles of managers in your organization is a good way to give your newsletter a personal touch. If your organization is small, you may want to list the names of all employees.

If you have any prices of standard products or services, you can include a listing of those here. You may want to refer your readers to any other forms of communication that you've created for your organization.

You can also use this space to remind readers to mark their calendars for a regular event, such as a breakfast meeting for vendors every third Tuesday of the month, or a biannual charity auction.

If space is available, this is a good place to insert a clip art image or some other graphic.
