SAD FAREWELLS

It is not good to lose staff and therefore this announcement leaves a bitter taste: Mr GRAHAM has accepted a Deputy Principal post at another school and starts tomorrow. Thanks for your short-term contribution to LBHS and we wish you God's speed. Mr TSOTSA has been appointed permanently in a Departmental post and starts at another school tomorrow as well. He has built up the Physics department from rock bottom and will therefore be sorely missed. May you also be blessed for the future.

CONTROL TEST

FRIDAY 11 SEPTEMBER

Learners have received the time table at the back of this newsletter. Hi-lite the dates and prepare in advance.

LEARNERS MUST BE AT SCHOOL EVERYDAY.

Learners will write from 8.00am to 10.00am. Teaching will continue till 1.00pm DAILY, even until the end of this term.

If learners do not write, they must be at school to study, then be part of the teaching for the day. ABSENTEEISM WILL BE MONITORED AND DEALT WITH.

SPELATHON RESULTS

Congrats to JOSHUA LE ROUX (2nd) and CHARNEY PIET (3rd) in this competition. Thanks to Mrs Baatjes and Ms Attwell who accompanied them.

DRUGS

The school and parents know of the use and abuse of drugs by some of our children. Today the Dog Unit searched SOME of the classes to ensure that our school is free of this scourge. The fact that they only found a pocket knife, is a pleasing result, but I am not complacent and think that no-one at this school is involved in illegal substances. WARNING: if you are using or pushing or carrying for someone, it WILL catch up with you and you will be punished accordingly. Report any suspicious activities to the office. YOU WILL REMAIN ANONYMOUS.

GENERAL

* FRIDAY 28 August has past, the day to hand in reams of white A4 paper. Learners will have to pay for notes AND MAYBE FOR SEPTEMBER EXAM PAPERS AS WELL.

* Outstanding STAYAWAKE money to be paid by TODAY.

* Outstanding FUN RUN R20 must be paid TODAY as well.

* PARENTS, PLEASE ENSURE THAT YOUR CHILD HAS FULFILLED HIS/HER COMMITMENT.

"The essence of life is finding something you really love and then making the daily experience worthwhile."

INSIDE STORY HEADLINE

This story can fit 150-200 words.

One benefit of using your newsletter as a promotional tool is that you can reuse content from other marketing materials, such as press releases, market studies, and reports.

While your main goal of distributing a newsletter might be to sell your product or service, the key to a successful newsletter is making it useful to your readers.

A great way to add useful content to your newsletter is to develop and write your own articles, or include a calendar of upcoming events or a special offer that promotes a new product.

You can also research articles or find “filler” articles by accessing the World Wide Web. You can write about a variety of topics but try to keep your articles short.

Much of the content you put in your newsletter can also be used for your Web site. Microsoft Publisher offers a simple way to convert your newsletter to a Web publication. So, when you're finished writing your newsletter, convert it to a Web site and post it.

INSIDE STORY HEADLINE

This story can fit 100-150 words.

The subject matter that appears in newsletters is virtually endless. You can include stories that focus on current technologies or innovations in your field.

You may also want to note business or economic trends, or make predictions for your customers or clients.

If the newsletter is distributed internally, you might comment upon new procedures or improvements to the business. Sales figures or earnings will show how your business is growing.

Some newsletters include a column that is updated every issue, for instance, an advice column, a book review, a letter from the president, or an editorial.

You can also profile new employees or top customers or vendors.

INSIDE STORY HEADLINE

This story can fit 75-125 words.

Selecting pictures or graphics is an important part of adding content to your newsletter.

Think about your article and ask yourself if the picture supports or enhances the message you're trying to convey. Avoid selecting images that appear to be out of context.

Microsoft Publisher includes thousands of clip art images from which you can choose and import into your newsletter. There are also several tools you can use to draw shapes and symbols.

Once you have chosen an image, place it close to the article. Be sure to place the caption of the image near the image.

This would be a good place to insert a short paragraph about your organization. It might include the purpose of the organization, its mission, founding date, and a brief history. You could also include a brief list of the types of products, services, or programs your organization offers, the geographic area covered (for example, western U.S. or European markets), and a profile of the types of customers or members served.

It would also be useful to include a contact name for readers who want more information about the organization.

This story can fit 175-225 words.

If your newsletter is folded and mailed, this story will appear on the back. So, it's a good idea to make it easy to read at a glance.

A question and answer session is a good way to quickly capture the attention of readers. You can either compile questions that you've received since the last edition or you can summarize some generic questions that are frequently asked about your organization.

A listing of names and titles of managers in your organization is a good way to give your newsletter a personal touch. If your organization is small, you may want to list the names of all employees.

If you have any prices of standard products or services, you can include a listing of those here. You may want to refer your readers to any other forms of communication that you've created for your organization.

You can also use this space to remind readers to mark their calendars for a regular event, such as a breakfast meeting for vendors every third Tuesday of the month, or a biannual charity auction.

If space is available, this is a good place to insert a clip art image or some other graphic.
