WELCOME!!

The German Exchange program continues effectively, welcoming 7 students and 1 teacher who arrived on Thursday. They will be at school, then undertake a trip to Cape Town. On their return they will spend time at school and also receive practical experience with companies of their career choice. Your support will be needed during this time.

SHORTS

*Blood Clinic was a success as the target of 55 was exceeded by 11 units. Thanks to the hard work of our peer promoters.

*JSE registration forms are available from Mr M. Louis at the start of this week.

REPRESENTATIVE COUNCIL OF LEARNERS

Congrats! Elected members were introduced to the school. Their role is to unite the learners to improve the school. They must raise the concerns of the learners and share them with the Principal and Management of the school. This valuable RCL must be functional.
